

Introduction to Aeromedical Transport Course

Feedback

"Talks were informative, interesting and practical"

"Enjoyed discussing scenarios and working groups"

"Sessions were very informative and well presented - particularly enjoyed the aneursym and physiological changes with altitude sessions"

"Enjoyed the pool practical session"

"Pilots presentation - fantastic"

"Paediatric session really informative"

INFORMATION AND REGISTRATION

Date: 7-9 June 2017

Time: 8am - 5pm

Location: Life Flight Air Rescue Centre,
George Bolt St, Rongotai, Wellington

Programme

Specific topics include:

- Altitude and gas laws
- Stressors of flight
- Aviation physiology
- Patient assessment and preparation
- Flight standards and legal issues
- Health and safety
- Hazards and aircraft safety
- Water survival
- Clinical considerations
- Simulation

What to bring

Please bring paper and pens for taking notes

On day three please also bring:

- A change of clothes
- A towel
- Clean shoes to wear in pool

Refreshments

Refreshments are included

- Morning and afternoon tea
- Lunch

Further information

Contact Karyn Hathaway

karyn.hathaway@ccdhb.org.nz or visit

<http://tinyurl.com/flightcoursenz>

MAP

Please return the Registration form by April 21, 2017 to:

Karyn Hathaway

ACNM, ICU and Flight Retrieval Service, CCDHB, Private Bag 7902, Wellington South.

Fax: 04 806 0059

Email: karyn.hathaway@ccdhb.org.nz

REGISTRATION FORM

Your details
Name
Position
Hospital
Phone
Email
Postal address (for course material)
Invoice address
Dietary needs
CCDHB staff: $350
Is the course paid for by your ward/unit?
Manager
Manager's signature
Is the course paid for by you? Please provide address for invoice:
All other applications: $450
Is the course paid for by your employer? Please provide address for invoice
Is the course paid for by you? Please provide address for invoice
Signature

